

I'M WITH THE DJ... Blagging your way into night clubs is an art form. You need a brass neck, plenty of quick, creative thinking and a look that says you're on the money... in the case of Strictly Fish you need sole - and plenty of it. 'Crepe to be precise', says promoter Martin Thomas. 'Well, that's what I go for. I can wear out a pair of leather shoes in the time it'd take to sink a pint, so these days I've gone old skool with Clarks.' ...Meanwhile Venetia Quick (Maitre d' @ Milano and Mrs Fish) is becoming the next Imelda Marcos, 'I can't stop buying shoes! Anything interesting catches my eye and I just have to have them.' This summer she'll be wearing Turmoil sandals. 'Good for work, rest and play. The ones I have on are my current favourites. In fact, I bought 3 pairs in different colours. Just as well they're only £23!'
